

DIRECTOR OF MAJOR GIFTS
CENTRAL INDIANA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

If you want colleagues who are smart, dedicated and passionate about creating a Central Indiana where every individual has an opportunity to reach their full potential – no matter their place, race, or identity – then welcome to Central Indiana Community Foundation (CICF). CICF is seeking an experienced development professional with a proven record of raising major gifts.

This full-time position represents the Foundation with assigned constituencies and directs efforts to cultivate and solicit major gifts and philanthropic engagement for the dynamic new initiatives of the Foundation. This position requires outstanding communication, organization and customer service skills.

The foundation is looking for self-starters who are organized, flexible and creative. Professional presence, relationship building skills, and the ability to interact effectively with a variety of people are essential. CICF has an open corporate culture of racial equity, teamwork, creativity, dedication and inclusion. Every staff member believes it is an honor and a privilege to serve the Central Indiana community and candidates should have values, interests and a work style that are compatible with this philosophy.

A bachelor's degree and a minimum of 8 years prior experience in fundraising is required with not-for-profit or public sector experience strongly preferred. Professional experience in donor cultivation and major gift solicitation with demonstrated success is also preferred.

Interested persons should submit a detailed cover letter and resume by April 30, 2019. Apply via our website at: www.cicf.org /About Us/Careers or Click Here.
